- This Spiritual Classic has created wonders for readers throughout the ages. It has been more than 500 years since it was written, but still this work is timeless and profound.
- This book is without advices and fruits of meditation for the Life of the Soul.
- It is an immense treasure for every Christian to read with their own eyes. The moral values and teachings on spirituality taught by Kempis will stand the test of time. Relationship with God is eternal. Despite the lack of intellectual and theological substance in his meditation, the Imitation of Christ has changed the lives of many people.
